

Austria Updates List of Jurisdictions Providing Comprehensive Mutual Administrative Assistance

12 December 2023

Report from IBFD Tax Treaties Unit

On 6 December 2023, the Austrian Ministry of Finance has published a revised version of the list of partners with which an agreement on comprehensive mutual administrative assistance is in place as from 1 January 2024. The revised list replaces the previous one published on 29 November 2022. The list has been updated to include Benin, Burkina Faso, and Papua New Guinea. Belarus and Russia continue to be listed as countries with which exchange of information is being suspended.

The full list of jurisdictions can be found here (in German).

Further developments will be reported as they occur.
