

Serbia and Switzerland Sign Protocol to Tax Treaty

19 September 2023

Report from our correspondent Dejan Dabetic, Ministry of Finance, Belgrade

On 19 September 2023, Serbia and Switzerland signed an amending protocol to update the former Serbia and Montenegro - Switzerland Income and Capital Tax Treaty \(2005\), in relations between Serbia and Switzerland. In general, the amending protocol intends to reflect the "matching" of the minimum standards provided in the Multilateral Convention \(MLI\).

Both Serbia and Switzerland expressed their wish that the necessary steps be taken for the formal ratification of the signed protocol at the earliest date. Further developments will be reported as they occur.
