

Multilateral Convention (MLI) – South Africa Publishes English Synthesized Text of Austria-South Africa Treaty

30 January 2023

Report from IBFD Tax Treaties Unit

On 27 January 2023, the South African Revenue Service published the English synthesized text of the Austria - South Africa Income and Capital Tax Treaty \(1996\), as amended by the 2011 protocol, displaying the modifications made to the treaty by the MLI.

South Africa and Austria deposited their instrument of ratification of the MLI on, respectively, 30 September 2022 and 22 September 2017. The MLI therefore entered into force for South Africa on 1 January 2023 and for Austria on 1 July 2018.

Unless stated otherwise in the synthesized text, the provisions of the MLI will generally have effect (other than article 16 regarding the Mutual Agreement Procedure) with respect to the Austria - South Africa Income and Capital Tax Treaty \(1996\), as amended by the 2011 protocol:

In South Africa:

- with respect to taxes withheld at source on amounts paid or credited to non-residents, where the event giving rise to such taxes occurs on or after 1 January 2023; and
- with respect to all other taxes levied by South Africa, for taxes levied with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 July 2023.

In Austria:

- with respect to taxes withheld at source on amounts paid or credited to non-residents, where the event giving rise to such taxes occurs on or after 1 January 2023; and
- with respect to all other taxes levied by Austria, for taxes levied with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024.

The purpose of the synthesized text is to facilitate the understanding of the application of the MLI but it is not in itself a source of law.
