

Czech Republic and Malta Initial Tax Treaty

24 August 2023

Report from our correspondent Václav Zíka, Prague

On 24 August 2023, the Czech Republic and Malta initialled an income and capital tax treaty, following a successful second round of negotiations held in Prague from 22 to 24 August 2023. The treaty is now awaiting signature by both countries. Once signed, in force and effective, the new treaty will replace the Czech Republic - Malta Income and Capital Tax Treaty \(1996\). Further developments will be reported as they occur.
