The National Agency for Fiscal Administration of Romania recently published the Romanian synthesized text of the Australia - Romania Income Tax Treaty \(2000\), displaying the modifications made to the treaty by the MLI.

Romania and Australia deposited their instrument of ratification of the MLI on, respectively, 28 February 2022 and 26 September 2018. The MLI therefore entered into force for Romania on 1 June 2022 and for Australia on 1 January 2019.

Romania deposited additional notifications confirming the completion of its internal procedures for the entry into effect of the MLI provisions, pursuant to article 35(7)(b) of the MLI. For more information concerning the Australia treaty, see Multilateral Instrument \(MLI\) – Romania Deposits Notification of Completion of Internal Procedures Under Article 35\(7\)\(b\) with OECD \(8 March 2023\). Additionally, check the Romania MLI Reservations and Notifications \(2017\) for more updates on the notifications.

Unless stated otherwise in the synthesized text, the provisions of the MLI will have effect with respect to the Australia - Romania Income Tax Treaty \(2000\):

In Romania:

- with respect to taxes withheld at source on amounts paid or credited to non-residents, where the event giving rise to such taxes occurs on or after 1 January 2024; and
- with respect to all other taxes levied by Romania, for taxes levied with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024.

In Australia:

- with respect to taxes withheld at source on amounts paid or credited to non-residents, where the event giving rise to such taxes occurs on or after 1 January 2024; and
- with respect to all other taxes levied by Australia, for taxes levied with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after 5 October 2023.

The purpose of the synthesized text is to facilitate the understanding of the application of the MLI but it is not in itself a source of law.
