

Norway Opens Consultation on Amendments to National Insurance Act Under Social Security Agreement with Iceland, Liechtenstein and United Kingdom

17 July 2023

Report from IBFD Tax Treaties Unit

According to a press release of 3 July 2023, published by the government of Norway, the Ministry of Labour and Inclusion of Norway has opened a consultation on proposed amendments to the National Insurance Act, subsequent to the conclusion of the Iceland - Liechtenstein - Norway - United Kingdom Social Security Agreement \(2023\). The implementation of the agreement requires legislative changes. In order to implement the agreement in Norwegian law, it is proposed to amend the first paragraph of section 1-3 b of the National Insurance Act, by adding the agreement as a new item in the list of multinational agreements with significance for social security coordination that apply as Norwegian law. The agreement cannot enter into force for Norway if such amendments are not adopted.

Responses to the consultation can be submitted here, until 24 August 2023. Further developments will be reported as they occur.
