Austria Issues New Clarification on Suspension of Automatic Exchange of Tax Information with Belarus and Russia under CRS-MCAA

12 December 2023

Report from IBFD Tax Treaties Unit

According to an update of 6 December 2023, published by the Austrian Ministry of Finance, Austria has released a new explanation on the income tax effects of the suspension of its tax exchange with Belarus and Russia, under the Multilateral Competent Authority Agreement on Automatic Exchange of Information Agreement \(2014\) (CRS-MCAA), replacing the previous clarification of 18 July 2022 (see Austria Clarifies Suspension of Automatic Exchange of Tax Information with Belarus and Russia under CRS-MCAA \(21 July 2022\)).

More information can be found here (in German).

Further developments will be reported as they occur.
