

Angola and Portugal Sign Pension Agreement

23 May 2023

Report from IBFD Tax Treaties Unit

According to a press release of 19 May 2023, published by the Portuguese government, Angola and Portugal have signed a pension agreement, following the 15th meeting of the Ministers of Labour of the Community of Portuguese-Speaking Countries (CPLP) held in Benguela. The agreement seeks to guarantee and protect the social security rights of Angolan and Portuguese citizens earned in the territory of these countries. The agreement is expected to enter into force on 1 January 2024. All the contributions made by the workers to social security before the agreement enters into force will be included. Further developments will be reported as they occur.

Treaty texts are published in the Treaties collection on IBFD's Tax Research Platform, as available.
