Multilateral Convention (MLI) – South Africa Publishes English Synthesized Text of Slovak Republic-South Africa Treaty

3 February 2023

Report from IBFD Tax Treaties Unit

On 27 January 2023, the South African Revenue Service published the English synthesized text of the Slovak Republic - South Africa Income Tax Treaty (1998), displaying the modifications made to the treaty by the MLI.

South Africa and the Slovak Republic deposited their instrument of ratification of the MLI on, respectively, 30 September 2022 and 20 September 2018. The MLI therefore entered into force for South Africa on 1 January 2023 and for the Slovak Republic on 1 January 2019.

Unless stated otherwise in the synthesized text, the provisions of the MLI (other than article 16 regarding the Mutual Agreement Procedure) will generally have effect with respect to the Slovak Republic - South Africa Income Tax Treaty (1998):

In South Africa and the Slovak Republic:

- with respect to taxes withheld at source on amounts paid or credited to non-residents, where the event giving rise to such taxes occurs on or after 1 January 2023; and
- -- with respect to all other taxes levied by each contracting state, for taxes levied with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 July 2023.

The purpose of the synthesized text is to facilitate the understanding of the application of the MLI but it is not in itself a source of law.
